

General Liability Coverage

United Educators' (UE's) general liability (GL) coverage protects against a range of potential claims including alcohol abuse, campus crime, sexual misconduct (if institutions qualify), and traumatic brain injuries (if institutions qualify).

UE offers limits of:

01 $1 million/$3 million aggregate primary coverage per occurrence

02 Limits of up to $30 million available under excess policy (exceptions apply)

All limits subject to underwriting review

What Is Covered

UE's GL policies typically cover institutions against liability arising out of bodily injury, personal injury, and third-party property damage occurring because of accidents or negligent acts attributable to an insured.

Coverage may apply to:

Allied health professionals and counselors in campus infirmaries

Excess auto liability

Armed and unarmed security guards

Foreign travel

Athletics

Who Is Covered

The policy typically provides coverage for:

- Educational institutions
- Trustees and officers
- Directors
- Faculty
- Employees

Types of Coverage

Primary General Liability (CGL) — Broad primary general liability coverage with a $1 million limit of liability that applies to each occurrence and a $3 million annual aggregate limit

Excess General Liability (GLX) — Excess general liability coverage up to $30 million per occurrence

Buffer Excess Liability (BLX) — Alternative to a traditional CGL policy that includes many of the same coverages, but with a self-insured retention and excess auto liability at a lower attachment point than the GLX
