

Insuring the Future of Education

For more than 35 years, United Educators (UE) has provided educational institutions with liability insurance coverage, education-specific risk management resources, and effective claims resolution. Our members include K-12 schools and higher ed institutions of all sizes in 49 states. As a testament to the value they derive from being with UE, members renew with us year after year, resulting in a 97.7% 10-year average premium retention rate.
