

Comparative Value Guide

Educators Legal Liability (ELL) Coverage

Since United Educators' (UE's) founding in 1987, our focus has been exclusively on education and finding new ways to meet our members' insurance coverage needs, manage risks, and efficiently resolve claims. When it comes to liability insurance, UE offers broad coverage. Use this checklist to compare the value and benefits of UE's educators legal liability (ELL) coverage with alternatives you might be considering.

First, review the coverage and value of UE's policy. Next, determine if alternative options provide the same comprehensive benefits. Any gaps in coverage or value by the other carrier represent a potential liability. If it is unclear how another policy may respond, ask that carrier's Underwriter to state the coverage position.

Discuss your comparison with your UE representative at any time. We're here to help.

Who's Insured

The policy typically covers:

- The educational institution, any not-for-profit affiliated organizations that share common purpose with the institution and are included in its financial statements
- Newly formed and/or acquired entities, including new for-profit entities (automatic coverage for 60 days)
- While acting within the scope of their duties to the educational institution:
 - Past, present, or future trustees, directors, and officers as well as their estates, heirs, legal representatives, spouses, and domestic partners for acts of the trustees, directors, and officers
 - Employees, faculty, student teachers, teaching assistants, volunteers, and committee members, including institutional review board members (at the option of the institution)
 - Representatives to an education association of which the insured institution is a member (at the option of the institution)

Education's Answer™

United Educators (UE), a reciprocal risk retention group, is a licensed insurance company owned and governed by more than 1,600 members representing thousands of K-12 schools, colleges, and universities throughout the United States. Our members range from small independent schools to multicampus public universities. UE was created in 1987 on the recommendation of a national task force organized by the National Association of College and University Business Officers. Our mandate is to provide K-12 schools, colleges, and universities with a long-term, stable alternative to commercial liability insurance.

EduRisk® from United Educators provides members with risk management resources to help prevent incidents that put people and institutions at risk. And, when claims do occur, UE protects our K-12 schools, colleges, and universities with education-specific coverage and an experienced claims management team. This prevention and protection philosophy enables UE to reduce the overall cost of risk for our policyholders.

United Educators is rated A (Excellent) by AM Best.
