

For more than 30 years, United Educators (UE) has protected educational institutions with our broad liability coverage, education-specific risk management resources, and mission-driven claims handling. Our members include K-12 schools and higher ed institutions of all sizes in all 50 states. As a testament to the value they derive from being with UE, members renew with us year after year, resulting in a 98% 10-year average premium retention rate.

This infographic illustrates the depth and breadth of our coverage across all educational sectors.
